

Forum on Faith and a Sustainable Economy

Poverty Crisis. Financial Crisis. Environmental Crisis.

Reflections on Hope and Transformation

What messages of hope and transformation do churches offer to the public dialogue?

What policy proposals grow the dignity of the human person and strengthen our care for creation?

What does it profit us, if we should gain the whole world and lose our own soul?

COMMUNITY AND POLICY PANEL: COMMUNITY, CANADIAN, AND GLOBAL CHALLENGES

John Dillon: Program Coordinator, Global Economic Justice, KAIROS
Graham Saul: Climate Action Network
Dan Wilson: Senior Director, Strategic Policy & Planning, Assembly of First Nations

THEOLOGY PANEL: FAITH & A SUSTAINABLE ECONOMY

Roy Berkenbosch: Theologian, Director Micah Centre, Kings' University College Edmonton
Keith Helmuth: Theologian and economist, contributor new Quaker book on Moral Economy
Darlene O'Leary: PhD, theologian specializing in ethics and economics

CHURCH PANEL: WHAT CONTRIBUTIONS WILL CHURCHES MAKE?

Bishop Mark McDonald: National Indigenous Anglican Bishop
The Very Rev Dr Marion Pardy: Vice-President, The Canadian Council of Churches

LUNCHTIME ROUNDTABLE WITH MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT

Hosted by The Evangelical Fellowship of Canada and The Canadian Council of Churches

Join us for a day of listening and learning, dialogue and debate on May 12, 2009 on Parliament Hill in Ottawa

DATE MAY 12, 2009

TIME 9:00AM TO 5:00PM

LOCATION PARLIAMENT HILL (ROOMS TBA)

COST SUGGESTED DONATION OF $50 ON SITE OR IN ADVANCE
CHEQUES PAYABLE TO THE CANADIAN COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

SIGN UP FOR SECURITY AND CATERING PURPOSES REGISTER WITH PETER NOTEBOOM (NOTEBOOM@CCC-CCE.CA) NO LATER
THAN APRIL 28, 2009

THE CANADIAN COUNCIL OF CHURCHES
LE CONSEIL CANADIEN DES ÉGLISES